95th Thomas P. Hinman Dental Meeting Draws More Than 23,000 Dental Professionals to Atlanta

BY KIM RYAN

It's been 95 years since Dr. Thomas P. Hinman organized the first dental clinic "strictly for serious-minded educational purposes." He invited 120 dentists to Atlanta to hear three speakers impart their dental knowledge. Today, attendance is not limited and this year's meeting attracted approximately 23,150 dentists, dental hygienists, dental assistants, dental students and other dental professionals and industry personnel to the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta. The meeting offered 170 courses and workshops given by 65 leading dental experts.

As one of the largest dental meetings in the country, Hinman also featured 425 exhibiting companies, demonstrating the latest in dental technology, products, equipment and services. This is a far cry from 1942 when Hinman introduced technical exhibits to the meeting and featured just 14 exhibitors.

This year's continuing education program offered 53 participation courses from some of dentistry's most notable experts, including Dr. Gordon Christensen, Dr. Samuel Low, Dr. Linda Niessen, Dr. Henry Gremillion, Dr. Karl Koerner, Dr. Charles Wakefield, Dr. Nader Sharifi and more.

Hinman introduced a new computerized accreditation process at the 2007 meeting. Attendees used the onsite CE printing stations to enter their information and print their own CE certificates. Others used their laptops and the free wireless Internet at the meeting to upload their CE information.

With more emphasis this year on attracting dental students – especially those who attend southeastern dental schools – Hinman offered a student orientation on Friday during the meeting. Hinman's Past General Chairman Dr. Bruce Ashendorf outlined courses the students may find of interest, offered suggestions on maximizing time spent at the meeting, and gave pointers on maneuvering the exhibit hall and surrounding areas. Dental student attendance was estimated at more than 800.

"All in all, I believe the 95th Hinman Dental Meeting delivered on its promise to be one of the best meetings ever, providing highly desirable and heavily attended courses and workshops, more technical exhibits than ever before, a new CE accreditation process and an enhanced and expanded auxiliary program," said Dr. Richard Goodroe, General Chairman of the 2007 Hinman Dental Meeting. "Again, Hinman leads the way in continuing education and proves to be where dental professionals want to be."

Hinman's Best-Of-Class Educational Programs

Hinman's educational programming offered everything from periodontics to forensics.

President's Letter

Thank You for Another "Best Hinman Ever!"

*Max Ferguson
President*

Thank you all around! Congratulations and a heart-felt thanks to Richard, Jim Bob and Robert for another "Best Hinman Ever!" The scientific program was excellent and we're getting rave reviews on all aspects of the meeting. Congratulations and another big thank you to the Hinman membership. Without your effort and dedication, the Hinman meeting could not attain this high standard year after year.

The Hinman Dental Society had another great year. Our January membership meeting boasted a record 360 attendees. Ms. Julie Weir provided a fun and informative look at how all of us from the "four planets" can co-exist and work better together. Thanks to Julie for an excellent program.

Another special thank you is in order for Brian Carpenter, our program chairman for the membership meetings. Not only did he spend a lot of time and effort setting these programs, but he also worked with the speakers from lift-off to touch down during the membership weekend. Well done, Brian.

The Trustees are always high on my list for thanks. Because of their continued generosity, we are able to have the quality membership meetings we have all experienced.

Our annual family weekend and "Hinman thank you" is fast approaching. Over the weekend of May 18-20 we will be heading to the Brasstown Valley Resort in North Georgia. Dr. William Rousseau, our annual meeting chairman, promises me it will be another "Best Annual Meeting Ever." We do have a couple of special surprises – especially Friday night. I hope all of your kids can come. The Trustees are providing one night of free lodging for every Hinman member. Double thank you to them!

My last thank you must go to our Hinman staff. They are the glue that really binds the Hinman family together. A highlight of the year has been getting to know and work with all of the staff.

It has been an honor and privilege to serve as your president for 2006-2007. Hinman's reputation ensured that Nancy and I were treated royally everywhere we went this year when representing Hinman. It was a fun-filled year and will not be forgotten.

Thank you,
See you in Brasstown Valley!

Dr. Wallace Lail Receives the Gold Card

The Gold Life Membership Card is an award conferred by the Hinman Dental Society to a selected member who has at least 25 years of continuous membership and has shown exemplary service on behalf of the Meeting. Candidates for the Gold Card are nominated by the President of the Hinman Dental Society and the General Chairman of the Meeting. The Advisory Committee must approve the candidate, followed by the Executive Council.

Dr. Wallace Lail (center) receives the Gold Card at the January Membership Meeting.

This year the Gold Card was awarded to Dr. Wallace Lail for recognition of his 42 years in the practice of dentistry serving his patients with excellence. President Max Ferguson and General Chairman Richard Goodroe presented Dr. Lail with the Gold Card during the January Membership Meeting.

The Gold Life Membership Card is prepared on a sheet of 14 karat gold. It is engraved with an appropriate legend, and carries an engraved signature of the President of the Hinman Dental Society and the General Chairman of the meeting, with the date of presentation. 🌸

Mary, Wallace and Slade Lail celebrate this award of distinction.

January Membership Meeting

General Chairman's Letter

Another Successful Hinman Meeting

*Richard Goodroe
General Chairman*

Wow! What a meeting. The 2007 meeting is now history. As always, it was a great meeting. Everything went so smoothly because of the great team that we have.

There were many positive comments about the new things we did this year. The car give away at the keynote session was a big hit. In fact, I had more compliments during the meeting that this was the best keynote ever. I thank Dale and Vince for that! The new CE certification system was a smashing success. It worked flawlessly.

The wireless Internet access in building A was up and running. We received 300 hits on Thursday on the CE certification system through our Web site, so we know that it was being utilized.

I want to take this opportunity to thank each Hinman member for the long hours they worked to make this meeting the great success that it was. I especially want to thank Robert and Jim Bob for the great program they put together. I am indebted to them. This year we broke the record for ticket sales revenue. This is a great tribute to our program. Last but not least I want to thank the Hinman staff. They are absolutely the greatest. Not only do they make the general chairman's job easy, they also make it fun.

It is now time to give our full support to Dan and the 2008 meeting. He has a great meeting planned and he needs all of our support to make it happen.

It has been a great honor being allowed to serve as general chairman for the 2007 meeting. It is something that I will never forget.

Thank you,

Richard

Hinman Dental Society Annual Meeting Brasstown Valley Resort May 18-20, 2007

Tucked away within the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, you'll discover a peaceful retreat called Brasstown Valley Resort. You'll find that the corporate world looks a little different from up there. It's a little more calm, and a lot less hectic. In fact, when you are at Brasstown Valley Resort, you will forget all about the hustle and bustle of Atlanta.

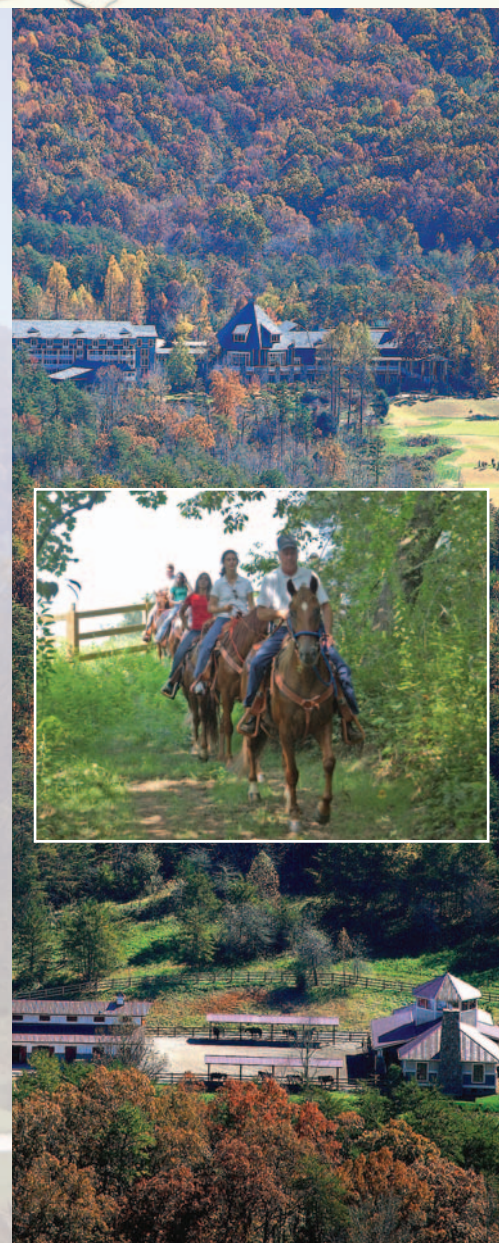

Inspired by lush, natural surroundings, the resort is as much a part of the 503-acre landscape as the sparkling trout streams, mountainous hiking trails, and unforgettable sunsets. That's because Brasstown Valley Resort was founded with a commitment to maintain and honor the traditions begun by the Native Americans of the region: traditions such as respecting and preserving the beauty of the land, its historic sites, and its animal habitats.

Today, nature and recreation proudly complement each other in a unique, natural environment. From the dogwoods and sycamores lining our scenic, winding entrance, to the championship golf course and the charming, rustic elegance of the interior décor, Brasstown Valley Resort offers a truly unique resort experience you will not forget.

While you are at Brasstown Valley Resort there's a sense of serenity and a sense of challenge, adventure, and imagination. One of the highlights of the activities is the 18-hole, links-style, championship golf course. Well-bunkered, with water on 10 holes, each of the 7,000 yards offers a panoramic view of the picturesque mountains. You can take a hike through the forest or try some of the best trout fishing in Georgia. And you don't want to miss the horseback riding, mountain biking and white-water rafting nearby. The kids can have fun with the Mountaineers Kids Club, where they can participate in supervised outdoor adventures, crafts-making, storytelling and wildlife hikes.

Remember that the Trustees have graciously granted a free room night to each Hinman member who attends the annual meeting. You must attend to take advantage of this member benefit. 🌸

Dr. Gordon Christensen filled a ballroom with more than 650 dental professionals who came to hear about the “Bottom Line” on the confusing array of “advancements” in the profession. Many came to hear the latest on oral surgery. Dr. Karl Koerner’s course “Oral Surgery Secrets: Advanced Techniques for the General Practitioner” attracted nearly 1000 dentists, assistants and students. Approximately 900 professionals turned out to hear Dr. Dwight Weathers’ course on oral pathologies and more than 800 attended Dr. Henry Gremillion’s course on orofacial pain.

Hinman Awards New Car & Prizes

Hinman’s Keynote Session this year featured Vince Dooley – the University of Georgia’s long-time head football coach and athletic director. He shared many inspirational stories and recalled that as a young teen, the first $52 he ever earned has been so dedicated to attending Hinman for all these years is the one who drives away with a brand new car,” said Dr. Goodroe.

$250,000 in Scholarships & Gifts Awarded

The proceeds from the Hinman meeting not only support the operations of its annual meeting, but make it possible to support student education throughout the Southeast. This year, the Thomas P. Hinman Dental Society awarded scholarships and gifts totaling more than $250,000 to 89 dental, dental hygiene, laboratory technician and dental assisting students at 37 colleges and universities located throughout the Southeast, as well as dental education groups and clinics. The students selected for scholarships were named “Hinman Scholars” and recognized during a luncheon at the Hinman Dental Meeting March 17, 2007.

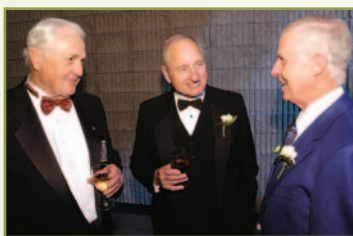

“There’s no question that Hinman offers the best in continuing education with a real commitment to quality and professionalism. Again, we’ve set the bar higher this year and we’ll be working diligently over the next year to offer an even more rewarding experience in 2008,” added Dr. Goodroe. 🌸 paid for some much-needed dental work.

At the end of the Keynote Session, Hinman held a drawing for a red, convertible 2007 Pontiac Solstice®. The winner, Dr. Joe Chafin, of McDonough, Ga., was thrilled with his new automobile and said, “I can’t believe this – I’ve never won anything like this before.” He also shared the fact that he’s been coming to Hinman since 1979 and only missed one meeting in 28 years, because his father was dying that year. “It’s nice that someone who

To Whom It May Concern:

I just wanted to take a moment to thank all those of The Hinman Society responsible for honoring me as a Hinman Scholar. This is just such a tremendous honor and I am truly grateful not only for the scholarship but also for the gracious luncheon, the fabulous hotel accommodations, and the travel reimbursement. I loved the meeting and look forward to many years of future attendance and involvement. I am so proud to be associated with such a first-class organization and hope to contribute to the Society in meaningful ways in the future. Again, thank you!

Dr. Towe,
I wanted to take a minute to send a note of thanks for all of you inviting me to the Hinman. You all sure know how to put on a meeting and I am honored to have been able to contribute. I had a GREAT time! Looking forward to keeping in touch and your feedback on the presentations, your staff was awesome and quite organized especially Stephanie. Dr. Ben Jernigan was a great host as well.

Happy Spring,

Thanks again,

Marlene,
The Hinman was extraordinary. You are right--the "hands-on" Southern hospitality of the meeting planners and coordinators was impressive. Hosts assigned to each Distinguished Speaker (a select group) were their escorts/companions throughout the meeting. The quality of the speakers was exceptional. There were no bad speakers, many very good speakers, and quite a few exceptional speakers. Some of the rooms accommodated 1000 attendees and were packed. The organizers' attention to detail made the meeting seem flawless. I appreciated that almost every speaker provided handouts, that the handouts had standardized cover sheets, and that the signage made it easy to see at a glance which speakers were where and when. I look forward to returning to the Hinman as a participant!

All my best,

Dear Dr. Goodroe,
I want to thank you for asking me to present a program again at the Hinman meeting last week. It is always my great pleasure to come to the Hinman and being a part of the excellent group of speakers is an honor. My arrangements were great, and I enjoyed good audiences. Thank you also for all the delicious meals! And the Chairman's reception at the Aquarium! What a beautiful venue!
My host, Dr. Lavin Berman, was just wonderful. I could not have asked for better. You are very kind. Curt Tekovic

Dear Dr. Goodroe,

Thank you for the opportunity to present at the Hinman Meeting. The hospitality of all the Hinman doctors and staff exceeded my expectations as a speaker! My hostess, Dr. Darryal McCullough, was unbelievable. She took care of my every need and want and more. She is the best host or hostess I have ever had in 20 years of speaking. Thank you for pairing me up with her. She made my trip to the Hinman and Atlanta very special.

I hope the meeting was a success for all of you. Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you or the Hinman in the future.
